STATEMENT OF ACCOUNT TO FORWARD MOVEMENT CHURCHES.

The semi-annual statements of accounts to the Forward Movement churches in arrears are being sent out, by the Foreign Mission Committee at Nashville, Tenn. These statements are sent as information and for comparison. If the pledge is calculated at the rate of an amount other than your annual pledge, or if the remittances credited on the pledge are not correct, please let us know promptly.

Contributions toward objects other than the pledge are credited to the church account so that the Annual Report will show the total of all gifts, but those credits do not appear on the statement. You should preserve the statement for reference. Succeeding statements usually begin with balance shown in former statement. In writing in regard to the account be sure to give name of church and Presbytery.

S. H. Chester,

Treasurer.

GENERAL.

To Mission Fields: Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Wilkinson and Miss Mildred Watkins will sail for China from Vancouver on September 15. Rev. H. Maxcy Smith will

GEORGIA.

Members of Savannah Presbytery: Please take notice that Presbytery will meet at Valdosta, Ga., instead of Lumber City. Please notify Elder J. O. Varndoe if you expect to attend.

Rev. R. A. Brown, Stated Clerk.

Macon Presbytery: The collection for schools and colleges, Macon Presbytery: So far only two churches have sent their collection for this important work to the treasurer. The treasurer, Rev. G. T. Bourne, 308 Cutters Green, Macon, Ga., would be glad to hear from all the churches before Presbytery meets.

Atlanta Presbytery: Program of Sunday School Institute, Rock Spring Church, Thursday, September 30, 1909. Thursday Morning, 11 a. m.: The Superintendent; His Character and Qualifications. J. J. Eagan, Supt. Central Sunday School, Thursday Afternoon, 2:30 to 4:30: The Teacher: 1. Character and Qualifications, W. R. Hoyt, First Church; 2. How to Prepare and Teach the Lesson, Rev. H. C. Hammond, Pryor St. Church; 3. Teacher Training, Rev. J. B. Ficklen, Inman Park Church. Thursday Evening, 7:30: 1. Organized Bible Class, Dr. Marlon McH. Hull, North Avenue; 2. The Home Department, C. R. Normandy, Supt. West End Sunday School; 3. The Sunday School as an Evangelistic Agency, Rev. W. L. Lingle, D. D., First Church. It is the wish of the Committee that each Church should have three representatives of their Sunday school present.

Boston: Rev. E. B. Witherspoon, pastor. Our church has recently enjoyed a most gracious season of revival. There had been manifestations of the Spirit's work among us, and during the latter part of July and in August, the pastor had the pleasure of welcoming two new members. Then Rev. J. W. Roseborough, evangelist, an old friend of the pastor, came to us and preached ten days or more. Mr. Roseborough had visited our people before, and was most gladly welcomed back again. He preached with his usual earnestness, persuasiveness, and conviction, and did great good in our midst. Christians were revived and strengthened, while the immediate results of the meeting were thirteen additions; we expect others to come to us later. Mr. Roseborough commended our people for their work on our church building. He could scarcely realize that the old church had been transformed into such an attractive house of worship. With these repairs about completed, and the recent addition of twenty-three members, we feel that the Lord has richly blessed us. Our pastor is now taking his vacation, spending September with his brother, Mr. W. D. Witherspoon, of Nashville, Tenn.

Marven: After closing the meeting at Boston, Mr. Roseborough held services for Mr. Witherspoon at his other charge, Marven. For almost two weeks the meeting was continued and much house-to-house visitation done, these two ministers driving from twenty to twenty-five miles almost daily. Much seed sowing was thus done, besides the pulpit ministrations, and we believe untold good will result from this meeting. Twelve new members were received, many of whom represented families. Previous to these services seven new members had been enrolled. This church is greatly encouraged at being strengthened by the nineteen recent additions, and hopes for continued growth and usefulness. The prayers and gratitude of both these churches go with Mr. Roseborough. May he long be spared to continue his earnest, fruitful labors for the Master.

KENTUCKY.

Campbellsville and Bethel Churches have called Rev. R. A. White, of Gerardstown, West Virginia.

LOUISIANA.

New Orleans: The pastor of the Napoleon Avenue church, Rev. H. W. Burwell, will return this week, to resume his regular services on the first Sunday of the month. He reports his wife's health as having greatly improved at Montreat.

The Second German Church has arranged with Rev. Louis Voss for a German service on the afternoon of each Sunday, and for Thursday evening, English services, and also for the care of the "catechism class" of the church. Rev. Jacob Meier, whose pastorate closed last week, leaves this week for Newark, New Jersey.

The pastor of the Prytania Street Church, Rev. Dr. W. McF. Alexander, will return to his post this week, after a short stay in Highlands, N. C., following a visit to Beaumont, Texas. The pulpit was again supplied, last Sunday, by Rev. Dr. S. C. Caldwell, of Hazlehurst, Miss.

The Business Man in the Sunday-school: On October 3, 4 and 5, in the city of New Orleans, there will be held a Conference in the interest of reaching more of the business men of Louisiana and securing their co-operation in Sunday-school work. W. C. Pearce of Chicago, Adult Superintendent of the International Association, and W. N. Wiggins, General Secretary of Texas, will conduct this Conference under the auspices of the Louisiana Sunday School Association. On the last day of the Conference, October 5, the Executive Committee of the Louisiana Sunday School Association will hold its semi-annual meeting and the Conference and committee will have a great rally on the night of the fifth. On Monday night from 5:30 to 7:00 o'clock, there will be a supper for men only. All men interested in the promoting of Sunday-school work in Louisiana are especially invited. At 7:00 o'clock there will be a great parade of business men interested in religious education in the State. Tuesday night from 5:30 to 7:30 the State Executive Committee will hold their annual dinner in honor of the out-of-town members of the committee, and at the closing session Mr. Pearce will deliver an address on "The Men of
